

Carol Peterson has thrived over several decades as a successful business woman, founding both an international gift firm and a San Francisco construction company. In 1990, she was honored by the San Mateo Better Business Bureau as Business Woman of the Year.

A few years ago, Carol decided to pursue her dream of singing. She joined one of the Bay Area's major gospel choirs and began working with local musicians to hone her singing talents, focusing on the blues and on jazz standards that always resonate with audiences. Teaming with Angelo Ortiz, who had worked with Patti LaBelle, the duo began to create original songs that are sexy, touching, sophisticated and funny.

Currently she is performing in the Bay Area but she has touched many audiences all over the world. Recently, she has started a new project, Performing sweet and sassy children's music with her band "Candy and the Sweet Teeth."
